This issue of Silpakorn University Journal of Social Sciences, Humanities, and Arts, like previous issues, features papers on a wide variety of topics including art history, linguistics, religious studies and literature, and includes a book review. Again, as the editor, I would like to thank all the contributors in this issue, as well as the manuscript reviewers for their constructive comments on the papers.

I am also pleased to report to our readers that our journal has been well received in recent years, with a rapidly increasing number of submissions from many diverse fields of interest. Furthermore, the journal has recently passed the quality evaluation by the Thai Journal Citation Index Center (TCI).
